Executive Summary

Positive Highlights

- April delivered the strongest target achievement at 51.5%, supported by EGP 2.9M in approved premium.
- Giza was the leading branch with EGP 2.2M, contributing 13.8% of approved premium.
- 5 branches grew year over year, led by October in absolute growth.

Key Concerns

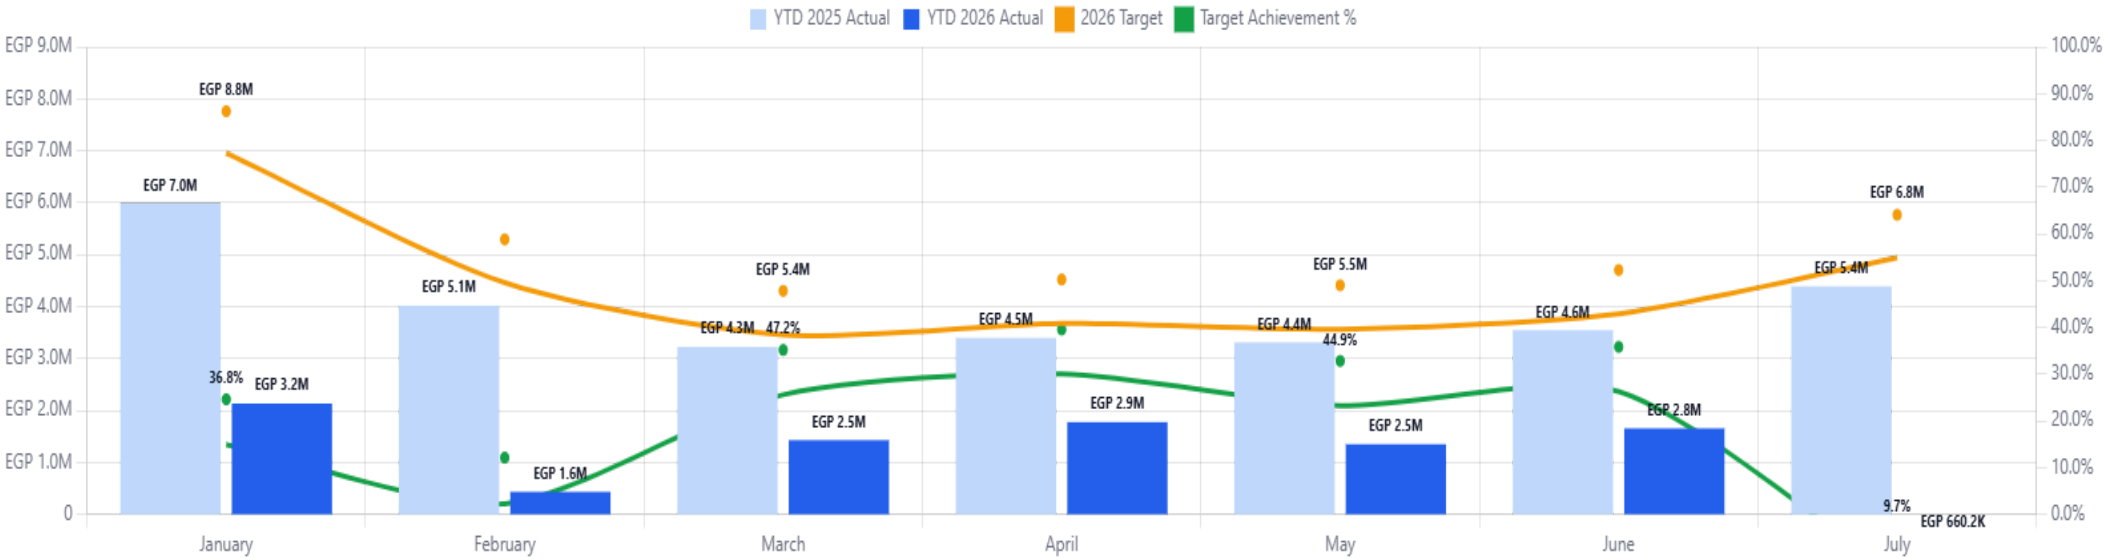

- Approved gross premium declined -54.5% versus YTD 2025, a decrease of EGP 19.2M.
- Target achievement reached 36.4%, leaving EGP 28.0M below the YTD 2026 target.
- July was the weakest month at EGP 660.2K and only 9.7% of target.
- The top three insurers represented 72.2% of YTD 2026 approved premium, creating concentration exposure.

Opportunities

- Pending pipeline totals EGP 717.8K, equal to 4.5% of approved premium.
- Motor Vehicle Private Company Comprehensive remains the largest line at EGP 13.3M; improving its conversion has the highest near-term impact.
- Motor renewal rate was 34.5% across YTD, leaving 797 not-renewed policies as a recovery pool.
- Nourhan Sabry Mahrous led seller production at EGP 2.2M; top-seller practices should be replicated across declining sellers.

SECTION 4

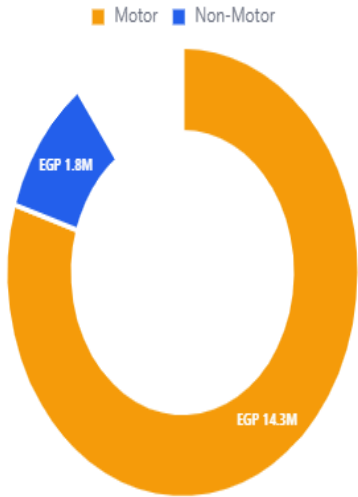

Premium Mix

Policy Type Mix

Shows approved premium by policy type, including any other policy types needed to reconcile back to approved gross premium.

Motor vs Non-Motor

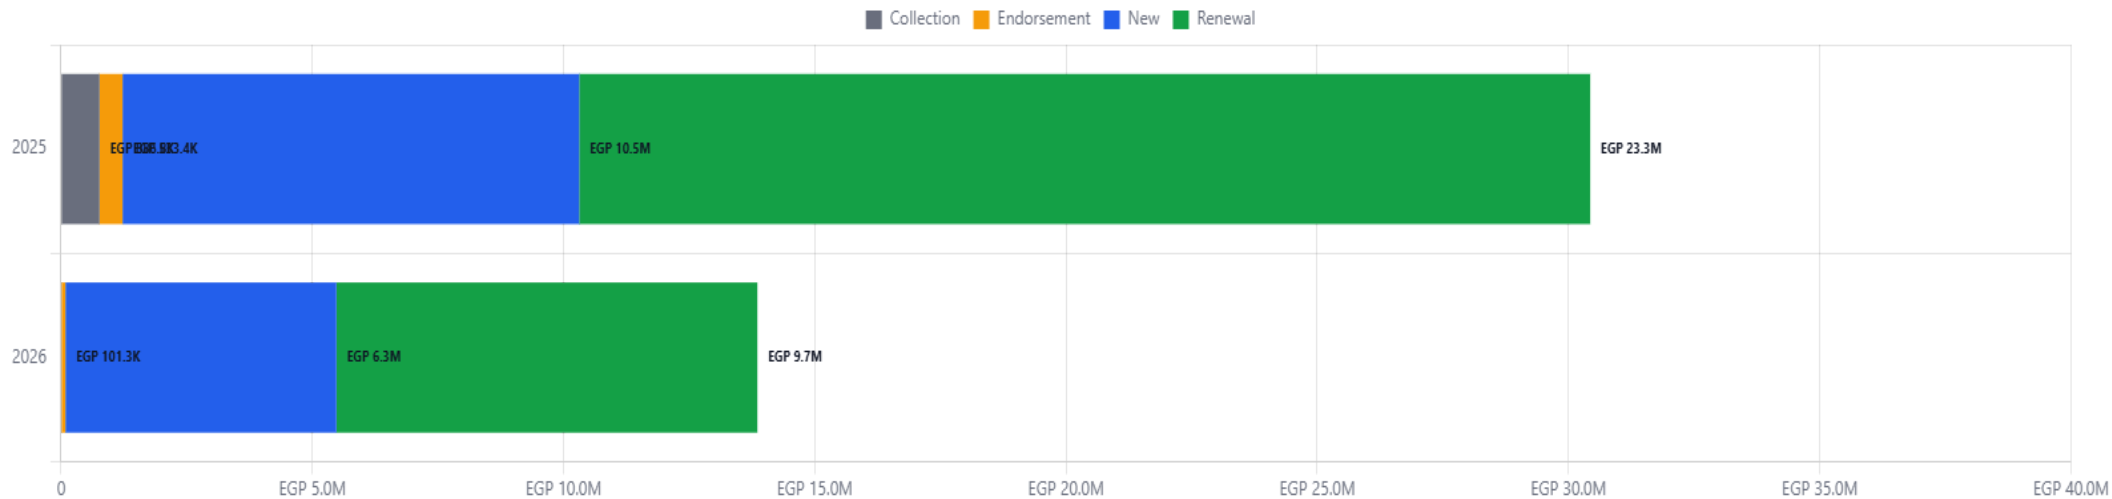

Shows motor versus non-motor concentration, important for understanding product dependency and diversification risk.

Retail vs Corporate

Shows retail versus corporate approved gross premium, clarifying the customer segment mix behind total production.

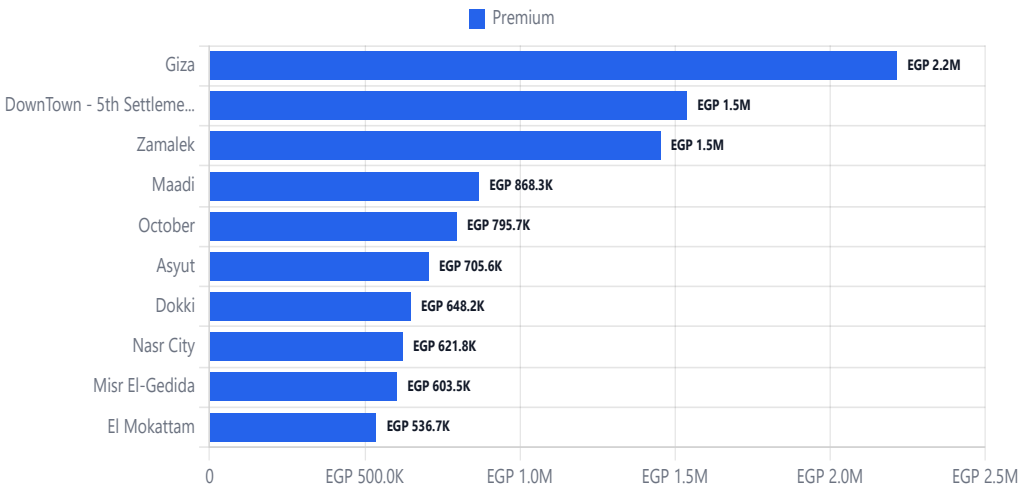

Status Mix by Year

Motor premium represents 88.8% of approved premium, while non-motor contributes 11.2%. This creates concentration risk in motor-led production and a clear cross-sell opportunity.

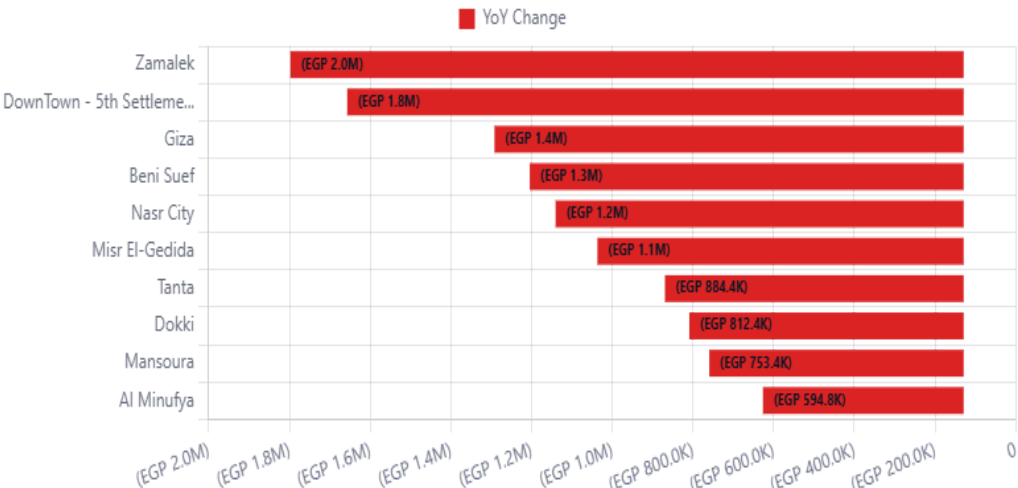

Branch Performance

Top 10 Branches by 2026 Premium

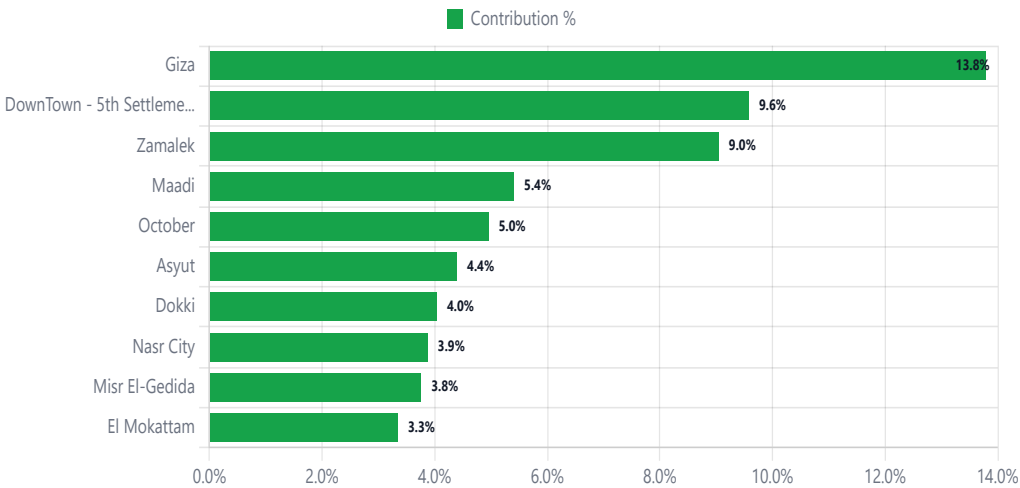

Ranks the highest-producing branches by 2026 approved premium to identify the main contributors to YTD production.

Bottom Branches by YoY Change

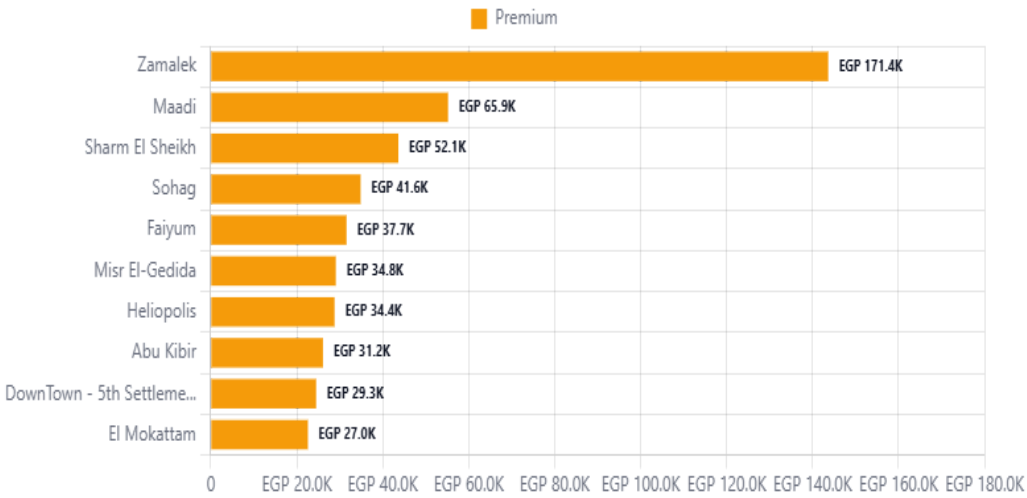

Ranks the largest negative branch movements by YoY premium change to focus recovery attention.

Branch Contribution %

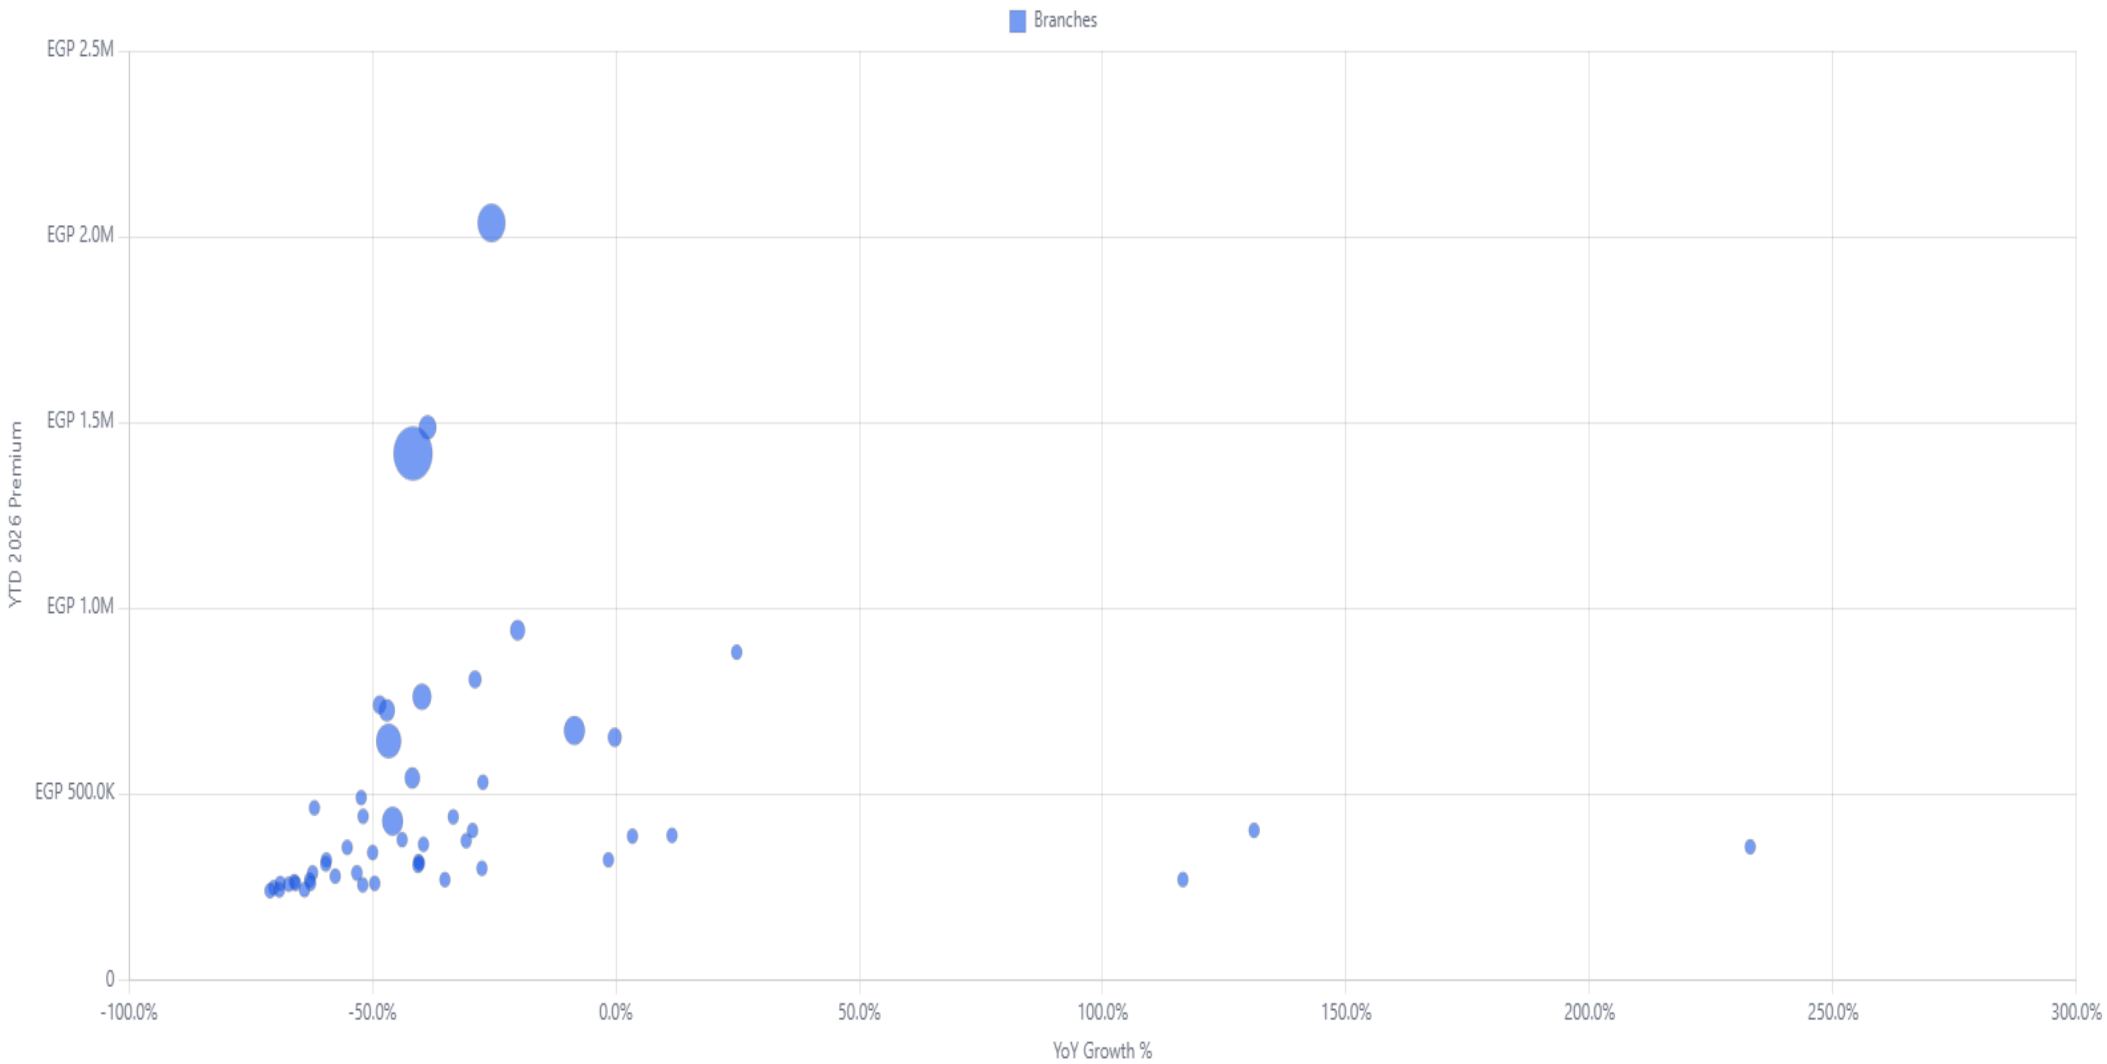

Shows each top branch's share of total 2026 approved premium, highlighting concentration by branch.

Branch Pending Exposure

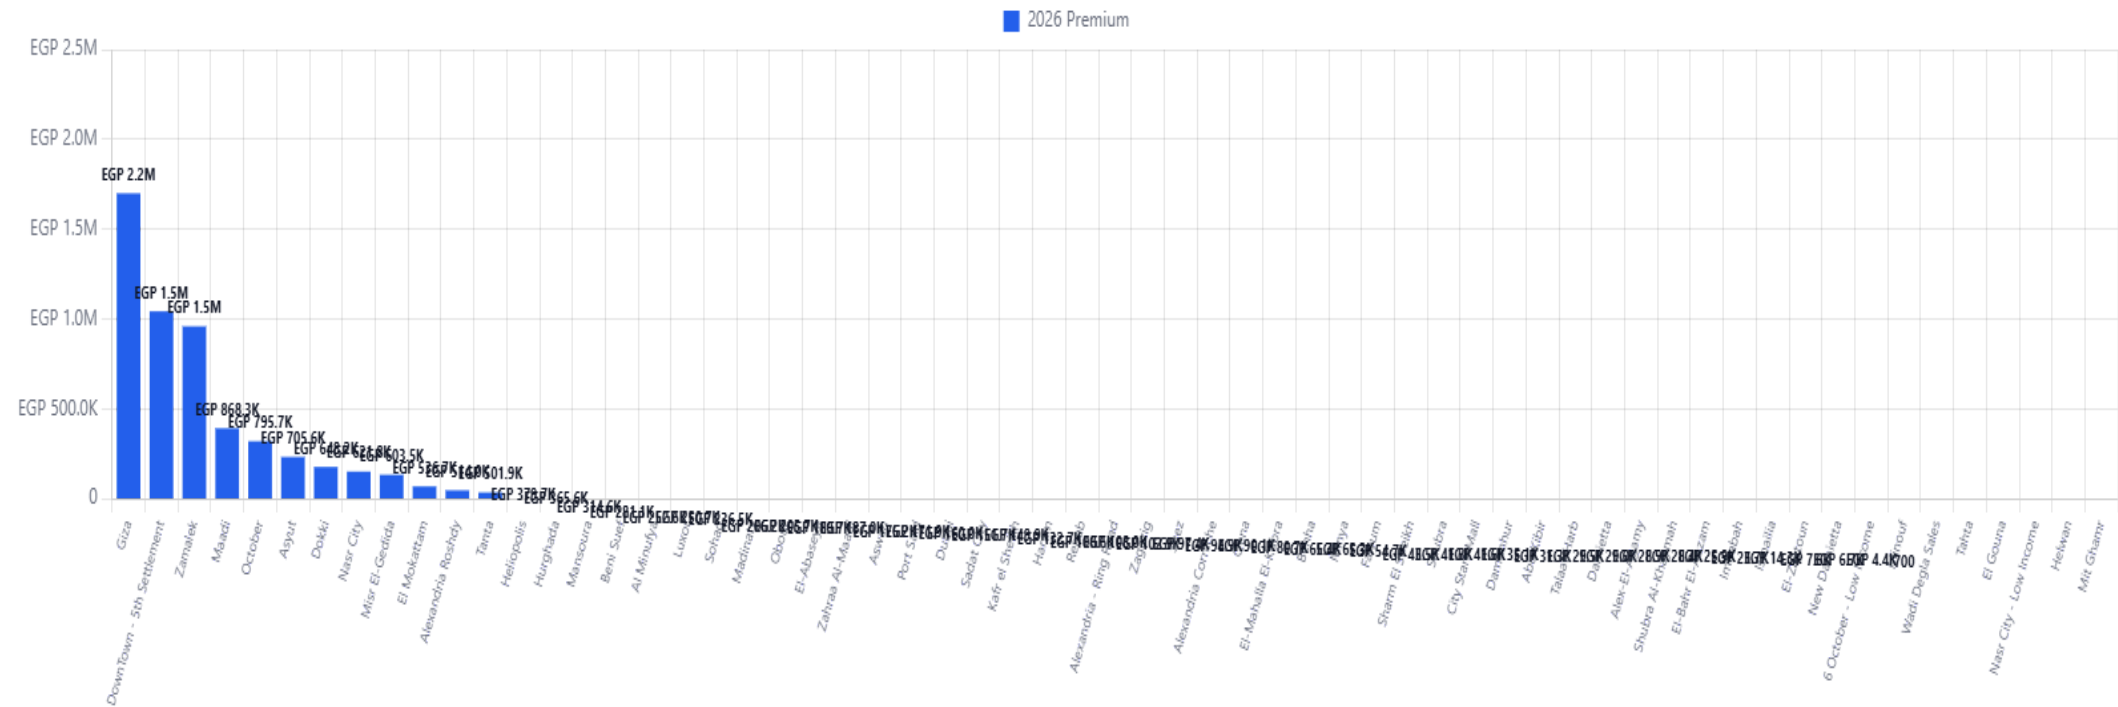

Shows branches with the largest pending exposure, useful for follow-up and conversion risk management.

Branch Performance Quadrant

Plots branch growth against premium volume to separate large declining branches from smaller growth pockets.

Branch / 2026 Premiums

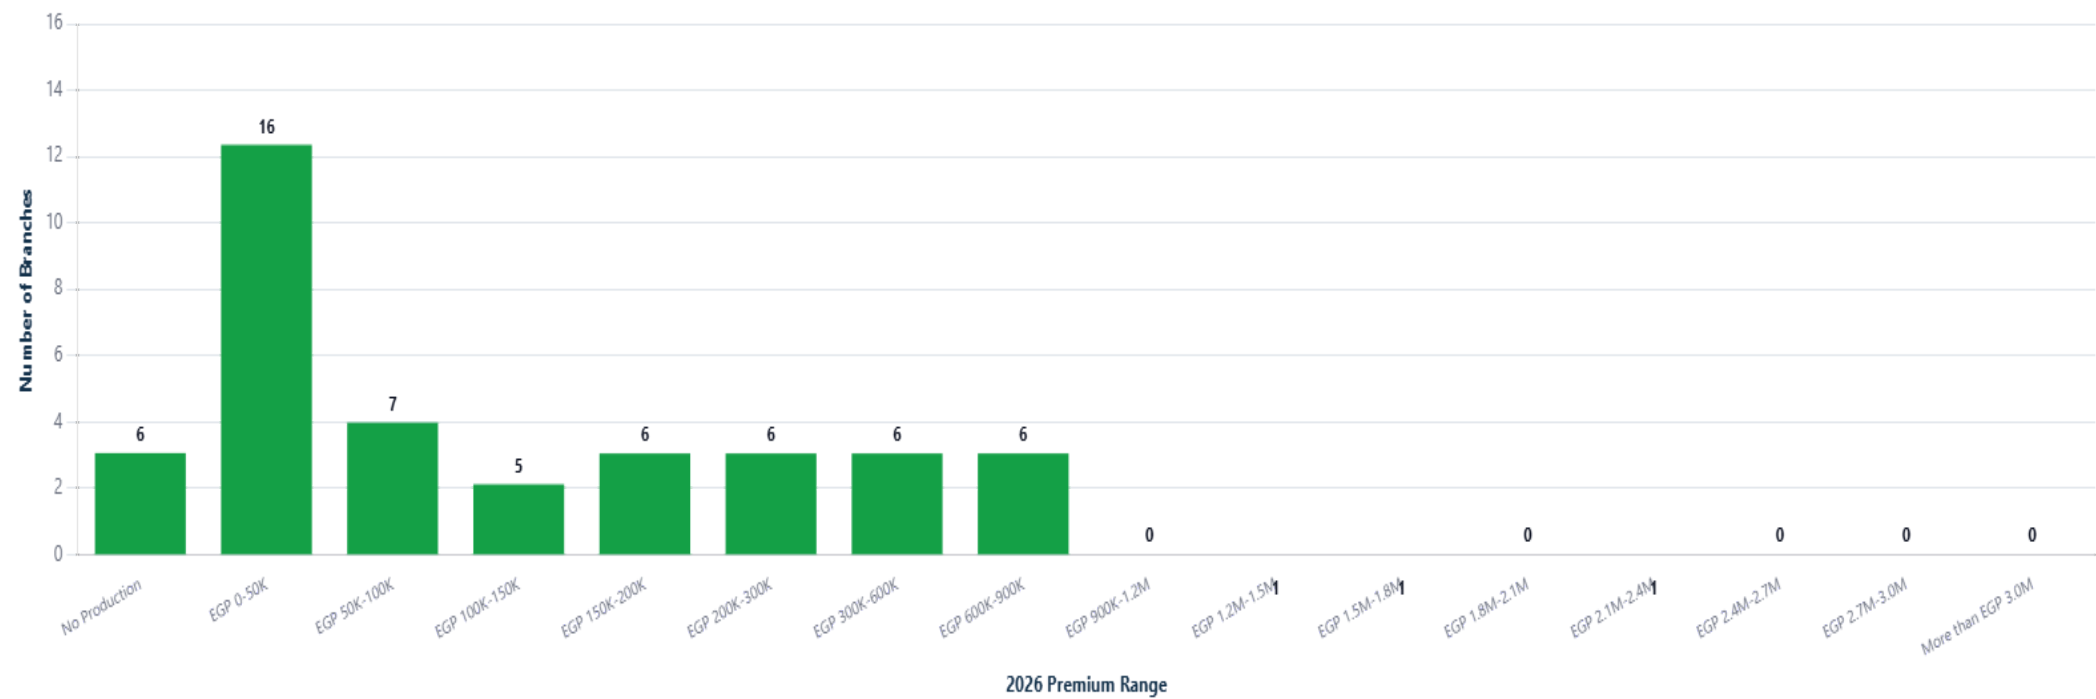

Shows 2026 premium by branch so production scale can be compared across the full network.

Pending Value by Branch

Shows pending value by branch so teams can prioritize conversion follow-up.

Pending Category Mix

Splits pending exposure by category to clarify whether the issue is operation-paid, finance, or not-paid-yet.

Zamalek has the largest pending exposure at EGP 171.4K. Pending amounts are treated as pipeline or risk exposure and are not included in approved gross premium unless explicitly shown as approved in the workbook.

SECTION 11

Main Performance Drivers

Positive Drivers

DRIVER	IMPACT	EVIDENCE	IMPLICATION
Top branch	EGP 2.2M	Giza led branch production.	Protect capacity and replicate its branch practices.
Best month	EGP 3.2M	January had the highest 2026 premium.	Use as monthly run-rate benchmark.
Growth pockets	5	Several branches grew with a valid prior-year base.	Study high-growth branches without overstating new-base records.

Negative Drivers

DRIVER	IMPACT	EVIDENCE	IMPLICATION
Premium decline	(EGP 19.2M)	Approved gross premium fell materially vs YTD 2025.	Launch recovery actions against target gap.
Target gap	EGP 28.0M	Achievement is 36.4%.	Monitor weekly production against branch targets.
Motor concentration	88.8%	Approved premium is heavily motor-led.	Grow non-motor cross-sell and insurer breadth.
